The month in brief

September 2026 brought 18 stage changes across three states, with California and Massachusetts accounting for nearly all activity. California enacted nine measures, including AB 2375, which shortens supplier payment terms from 42 to 30 days and revises the statutory definition of beer, and AB 2751, which allows adults to import up to six liters of alcoholic beverages every 31 days when entering from Mexico by foot or private vehicle. Massachusetts enacted five local licensing bills and advanced three more through one chamber. Eight laws take effect before year-end: two Alabama measures on October 1 covering small craft producer licensing and importer authority, Connecticut's cannabis and infused beverage regulation bill on October 1, and five Oklahoma measures on November 1 addressing topics from license fees to credit terms between distributors and retailers.
