The month in brief

September 2026 brought significant legislative activity in entertainment law, with California accounting for eight of the ten bills that changed stage. Seven California measures were enacted, addressing subjects from digital replicas and synthetic performers in advertising to child influencers on social media and film tax credits. The District of Columbia enacted DC B 26-0224, which caps ticket resale prices at ten percent above the initial price and requires reseller registration. One California bill was vetoed: CA SB 865, which would have established a $20,000,000 grant program for independent live music festival promoters. A federal bill strengthening ticket sales enforcement, US H.R. 2713, advanced out of committee. Connecticut's SB 483, establishing the crime of digital defrauding, takes effect October 1, 2026.
