The month in brief

September 2026 brought 63 stage changes in the Insurance Tracker, with California accounting for 34 of them. The state enacted 29 bills and saw the governor veto five others, including CA SB 877 and CA SB 878, which would have expanded residential property insurance claim transparency and response deadlines. Delaware enacted eight bills, among them DE SB 271 strengthening pharmacy benefits manager regulations and DE SB 319 requiring health plans to cover menopause and perimenopause treatment. Federal activity included passage of US S. 4395, which would extend the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act program through 2034. Forty-two laws take effect between October and late

December, led by six Alabama measures and numerous Maryland health and workers' compensation provisions effective October 1, 2026.
